From Rumbling Tummies to Living Bread

Today's texts move us from rumbling tummies and flaring tempers to a refocusing on the blessings poured out and the primary benefactor. We see the gifts of God, which come in a variety of ways: physical nourishment, roles and talents lifted up in community, new life given now and into the ages of ages. We find that the gifts are responses to various actions—complaining, building for the future, longing for signs of promise and hope. Yet each of these actions and the gifts mean little if we are not able to see the one who is the giver and to recognize that the gifts are not merely about what we can do to get them or what signs are needed to prove them; rather, it is about trust in God, who is the source of life and living—the one who provides the true bread from heaven. Our role in this story is to tell the history of God's giving, similar to the psalmist. It is to open our eyes to the way the bread of heaven is sustaining us today, physically and spiritually. And as a community living in God's promise, we look to the one God sends to us as the bread of life. In many early Hebrew and Greek writings, the stomach was a driving force and a place where hope and faith were lodged. The readings point us to see how a longing for food opens a greater dwelling place for the gifts of faith and promise. From our physical depths we are called to experience a greater spiritual reality.

BUILDING FUND DRIVE

We are Blessed to have an opportunity to take on several long-needed building and grounds projects due to a matching funds offer of $25,000.00. For the months of July and August, we will have special collection envelopes in the pews and on the table in the narthex for your donations to the Building Fund.

If we can raise $25,000.00, it will give us $50,000.00 to spend on repairing and painting the driveways and parking lots, exterior lighting of the parking lots, repair and painting of the exterior areas of the church not covered by siding, and repair of the outside shelter and construction of a new storage building.

Please consider making a donation during July and August to the Building Fund.

Thank you for your always generous support!

CARITAS

Caritas has reported that they have had more requests than usual for help and their funds are being stretched to the limit. Please help them as you are able.

SPECIAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

Your Church Council has called for a Congregational Meeting to be held at church today, following the Sunday service. We have received two bids for repairs to the church parking lot and Congregational approval is needed to spend the necessary funds to have that work done. We would appreciate your attendance at this meeting, to review and select one of the bids for this work. The meeting will be held in the community room. Following that Congregational meeting, there will be a Church Council meeting to act on what the congregation has directed.

Thank you for your input and consideration. We look forward to seeing you at this meeting.

Rev. Devon William Barrix, age 81, passed away peacefully on July 21, 2024, in the Palliative Care Unit at Aspirus Hospital Wausau after suffering a massive hemorrhagic stroke. Devon grew up on a farm in Wisconsin and graduated from Mauston High School. He worked 39 years in the healthcare field both as a Lab Manager in Madison, as a Hospital Administrator at Columbus Community Hospital, and as CEO of the HMO of Wisconsin.

After he and his wife Joanne joined Trinity Lutheran in Rhinelander, Wisconsin, Devon attended the Northern Great Lakes Synod Lay School and decided to go to Luther Seminary. Ordained on August 28, 2005, he accepted a call to serve the people of Bethany Lutheran, Perkins, and Faith Lutheran, Rock in Michigan. Devon served as pastor in those two congregations until 2010 when health issues again forced him to retire.

He and Joanne returned to northern Wisconsin where they joined Immanuel Lutheran in Rhinelander, and he served several months as interim pastor there. He also helped teach in the synod's Lay School and remained an active member of Immanuel.

Devon enjoyed the Corvette club, boating on Lake Winnebago, and riding a Harley motorcycle. Throughout his lifetime, he demonstrated his love of God, family, and friends, and his many career paths touched countless people.

Devon is survived by his wife JoAnne, brother Tom Barrix, son David (Kay) Barrix, granddaughters Ashley Upton (Jeff) and Emily White (Henry), great-grandson Jayden Journigan and many nieces and nephews. Just As I Am, without One Plea

The musical score is written in a three-system format. Each system consists of a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The key signature is one flat (B-flat major or D minor), and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are printed below the vocal line. The first system contains the first four lines of the lyrics. The second system contains the next four lines. The third system contains the final two lines of the lyrics. First Reading Genesis 9:8-17

⁸Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him, ⁹"As for me, I am establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you, ¹⁰and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the domestic animals, and every animal of the earth with you, as many as came out of the ark. ¹¹I establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth." ¹²God said, "This is the sign of the covenant that I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations: ¹³I have set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth. ¹⁴When I bring clouds over the earth and the bow is seen in the clouds, ¹⁵I will remember my covenant that is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh. ¹⁶When the bow is in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth." ¹⁷God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant that I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth."

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 136:1-9

¹O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
for his steadfast love endures forever.

²O give thanks to the God of gods,
for his steadfast love endures forever.

³O give thanks to the LORD of lords,
for his steadfast love endures forever;

⁴who alone does great wonders,
for his steadfast love endures forever;

⁵who by understanding made the heavens,
for his steadfast love endures forever;

for his steadfast love endures forever;

⁷who made the great lights,
for his steadfast love endures forever;

⁸the sun to rule over the day,
for his steadfast love endures forever;

for his steadfast love endures forever;

Second Reading Ephesians 3:14-21

¹⁴ For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, ¹⁵ from whom every family in heaven and on earth takes its name. ¹⁶ I pray that, according to the riches of his glory, he may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit, ¹⁷ and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love. ¹⁸ I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth, ¹⁹ and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

²⁰ Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine, ²¹ to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation

The Holy Gospel According to....
Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel Reading Mark 6:45-56

⁴⁵Immediately he made his disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he dismissed the crowd. ⁴⁶After saying farewell to them, he went up on the mountain to pray.

⁴⁷When evening came, the boat was out on the sea, and he was alone on the land. ⁴⁸When he saw that they were straining at the oars against an adverse wind, he came towards them early in the morning, walking on the sea. He intended to pass them by. ⁴⁹But when they saw him walking on the sea, they thought it was a ghost and cried out; ⁵⁰for they all saw him and were terrified. But immediately he spoke to them and said, "Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid."

⁵¹Then he got into the boat with them and the wind ceased. And they were utterly astounded, ⁵²for they did not understand about the loaves, but their hearts were hardened.

⁵³When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored the boat. ⁵⁴When they got out of the boat, people at once recognized him, ⁵⁵and rushed about that whole region and began to bring the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. ⁵⁶And wherever he went, into villages or cities or farms, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.

Praise to you, O Christ.
