Be Not Afraid

How would you live if you were not afraid? Fear is used by politicians to gain our votes, by the media to get our attention, by advertising firms to sell us what we don't need, and by TV evangelists to get our donations. What fears are used against us? One is scarcity, the fear that we won't have enough or won't get our share. Our false belief that having more money and "stuff" will save us binds us as slaves. In many cases, having less can free us to live by faith.

The writer of Hebrews 11:1 states, "Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen." Normally, we read forward from this verse, but the word "Now" is a clue that we should look back. Hebrews 10:39 says, "But we are not among those who shrink back and so are lost, but among those who have faith and so are saved." Who shrinks back? Those who are afraid. Who are saved? By implication, those who do not shrink back and are not afraid. So fear is not only a faith issue but an issue of our salvation. And is that not what we would expect? What more do we need to be saved from than our worst fears? What good is a savior who does not help us confront our fears? As noted above, our fears are the handles that marketers, politicians, and supervisors often use to control us and bend us to their plans and desires.

But like the pain that warns us of injury and nausea that tells us we are becoming ill, our fear has a positive use: it lets us know our vulnerability, and it tells us what we truly value and truly trust. "We walk by faith, not by sight" (2 Cor. 5:7). The powers and principalities promise us what we can see. Where do we put our true faith and trust?

Greeting & Announcements

Invocation

(Please remain seated.)

In the name of the Father, and of the † Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Confession And Forgiveness

Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart, and confess our sins unto God our Father, urgently and fervently asking him, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to grant us forgiveness.

Gracious God,

Have mercy on us. We confess that we have turned from you and given ourselves into the power of sin. We are truly sorry and humbly repent. In your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things we have done and things we have failed to do. Turn us again to you, and uphold us by your Spirit, so that we may live and serve you in newness of life through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Amen.

Almighty God, in his mercy, has given his Son to die for us and, for his sake, forgives us all our sins. As a called and ordained minister of the Church of Christ, and by his authority, I therefore declare to you the entire forgiveness of all your sins, in the name of the Father, and of the † Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Greeting

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

Opening Dialogue

I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me will live, even though they die;

And whoever lives and believes in me will never die!

Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God.

Set your mind on things above, not on earthly things.

I know that my redeemer lives, and at the last, God will stand upon the earth.

And after my skin has been destroyed, yet in my flesh I will see God!

I tell you the truth; anyone who hears my Word and believes in God who sent me, has eternal life.

And I will not be condemned. They have crossed over from death to life.

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.

Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness.

For we do not live to ourselves, and we do not die to ourselves. If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we belong to the Lord.

So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord!

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray....

Almighty God,

Whose people are knit together in one holy Church, the body of Christ our Lord: grant us grace to follow your blessed Saints in lives of faith and commitment, and to know the inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who love you; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen

(Please be seated)

First Reading Isaiah 25:6-9

- ⁶ On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear.
- ⁷ And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples,
the sheet that is spread over all nations;
- ⁸ he will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken.
- ⁹ It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the LORD for whom we have waited;
let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 24

- ¹ The earth is the LORD's and all that is in it,
the world and those who dwell therein.
- ² For the LORD has founded it upon the seas and established it upon the rivers.
- ³ Who may ascend the mountain of the LORD,
and who may stand in God's holy place?
- ⁴ Those of innocent hands and purity of heart, who do not swear on God's being, nor do they pledge by what is false.
- ⁵ They shall receive blessing from the LORD and righteousness from the God of their salvation.
- ⁶ Such is the generation of those who seek you, O LORD, of those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.
- ⁷ Lift up your heads, O gates; and be lifted up, O everlasting doors, that the King of glory may come in.
- ⁸ Who is this King of glory?
The LORD, strong and mighty, the LORD, mighty in battle!
- ⁹ Lift up your heads, O gates; and be lifted up, O everlasting doors,
that the King of glory may come in.
- ¹⁰ Who is this King of glory?
Truly, the LORD of hosts is the King of glory.

Second Reading Revelation 21:1-6a

¹ I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. ² And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. ³ And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,

“See, the home of God is among mortals.

He will dwell with them;

they will be his peoples,

and God himself will be with them;

⁴ he will wipe every tear from their eyes.

Death will be no more;

mourning and crying and pain will be no more,

for the first things have passed away.”

⁵ And the one who was seated on the throne said, “See, I am making all things new.” Also he said, “Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.” ^{6a} Then he said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.”

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel According to....

Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel Reading John 11:32-44

³² When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.” ³³ When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved.

³⁴ He said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to him, “Lord, come and see.” ³⁵ Jesus began to weep. ³⁶ So the Jews said, “See how he loved him!” ³⁷ But some of them said, “Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?”

³⁸ Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. ³⁹ Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, “Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days.” ⁴⁰ Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?” ⁴¹ So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, “Father, I thank you for having heard me. ⁴² I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.” ⁴³ When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” ⁴⁴ The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, “Unbind him, and let him go.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven; by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate of the virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his Kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

ALL SAINTS LITANY

Let us remember those gone before,

Whose souls are in the hands of God,

Where torment shall never touch them. In the eyes of fools they seem to have died;

In the eyes of sages they appear in glory.

In the minds of fools their death was destruction;

In the minds of sages, transformation.

They were embattled;

They are at peace.

They were fatigued;

They are at rest.

They were distressed

They are at ease.

They were alone;

They are one with God.

In life they fought their own mortality;

In death they yield to immortality.

In life they dimmed, their bodies tarnished;

In death they shine, their spirits burnished.

Yes, let us remember those gone before,

Whose souls are in the hands of God.

Gracious Lord, source of all mercy and God of all consolations, we remember before you our brothers and sisters in this community who have died this past year.

We name aloud those who have entered the church triumphant during this past year.

(Pastor then presides over the reading of the names, standing at the head of the Prayer Cross.)

(As each name is read, a bell is rung, and a candle of remembrance is lit.)

(An invitation for all who would like to silently light a candle in memory of a loved one.)

We thank you, Almighty God that by water and the Holy Spirit you have bestowed upon these children the forgiveness of sin and have raised them to the new life of grace. Bless them, O Lord, with your presence, enfold them in the arms of your care, and keep them in your love forever.

Amen.

Let us remember the saints among whom we live today.

Whose souls are in the hands of God.

Gracious Lord, we thank you for the new life you have given all of us through Holy Baptism. Continue to strengthen us with the Holy Spirit, and increase in us your gifts of grace: the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord, the spirit of joy in your presence. We give you thanks for your Church, the community of all your Saints, all those who acknowledge you as Lord. Bless us now as we offer you our worship and praise.

Amen.
